Nursing Philosophy

The Faculty of the Putnam Career and Technical Center School of Practical Nursing (PCTC) philosophy is to provide students with knowledge, skills, understanding, attitudes, appreciation, and work ethic necessary to enter into and make progress in employment in an existing and changing society. In addition, PCTC nursing faculty holds the following beliefs:

Practical Nursing is the performance of selected nursing acts in the care of the ill, injured, or infirm under the direction of a licensed professional nurse, a licensed physician, or a licensed dentist in all settings in which nursing takes place. Practical nursing is concerned with basic therapeutic, rehabilitation and preventive care for people of all ages and diverse cultures in various stages of dependency. The practical nurse uses a clinical problem solving process (the nursing process) to collect and organize relevant health care data, assist in the identification of health needs/ problems throughout the client's lifespan and contribute to the interdisciplinary team in a variety of settings. The practical nurse uses the nursing process under appropriate supervision to provide competent care for clients with commonly occurring health problems.

Education is a lifelong process whereby learning occurs by guided experience so that behavior is modified or changed. Education is a dynamic process that directs and facilitates learning. The faculty guide, direct, facilitate and evaluate learning while encouraging self-direction and development of critical thinking. The process of learning is most effective in an atmosphere that respects individualism. The development of cognitive skills is enhanced by teaching strategies.

Practical Nursing Education is designed to focus on a holistic approach to learning, progressing from simple to complex. This education builds on previous levels of knowledge and experience. Practical nursing education is goal-directed and purposeful and includes the development of cognitive skills including critical thinking and analysis. Engrade allows students to send messages to their instructors if they have questions regarding grades, or to request an office appointment. Instructors may also send messages to the entire class regarding announcements, notifications, or additions or changes in assignments. Individual student messages can be communicated to students as well, if necessary.

Grading Policy

At the end of the semester/course the student's lowest exam grade will be dropped. Each student must maintain passing scores in all areas of classroom and clinical instruction. Students unable to maintain a final grade of "C" (80%) in any course in classroom or clinical performance will be dismissed from the program. No course may be repeated and no re-testing will be done.

Student whose class or clinical work, whose point value is less than 80% at mid-semester will automatically be placed on probation and will remain on probation until semester's end. The student's clinical grade will not be averaged in the overall cumulative grade point average.

The following letter grade system is used in classroom theory:

A	Academic Excellence	93 - 100%
B	Above Average	87 - 92%
C	Average	80 - 86%
F	Failure	0 - 79%

Theory Grades are weighted as following:

Exams: 50% Homework: 15% Quizzes: 10% Final: 25%

Grade Point Average

Grade point averages are calculated by dividing quality points by the number of units taken which carry credit. The quality point value of grades is as follows: The student's clinical grade will not be averaged in the overall cumulative grade point average.

A	4 points
B	3 points
C	2 points
F	0 points

If a student is absent, any known homework assignment is expected to be turned in on the first returning day of class.

Fire drills are conducted periodically in the school. The procedure is as follows:

1. When the bell sounds, students must stop work immediately.
2. Exit the classroom immediately through the outside door and walk in a straight line following the instructor to the designated student area. Remember to move quickly and quietly.

4. Return to the classroom and resume classes upon notification.

Clinical:

1. Follow the policy and procedures of the affiliated agency as provided during facility orientation.

Student Organization Policy

Membership in the WVSNA is required as part of the nursing curriculum. This organization contributes critical support for practical nursing students and graduates. Students are required to participate in scheduled activities and events when specified in order to meet program objectives. All conduct policies apply.

Employment

Students are advised not to maintain or seek employment during the school year. The course work and clinical requirements are very strenuous.

Student Health Policy

Students are responsible for their own health care if they become ill during the school year. It is recommended that each student carry medical hospital insurance.

The school or hospital is not responsible for any illness contracted by the student while performing school/clinical assignments. If the student becomes ill during clinical hours, the student may be seen in the Emergency Room by a physician at the student's expense. Students should not approach physicians for personal medical advice during clinical hours. If a student is injured in the clinical setting he/she is to notify the instructor right away and the agency's policy and procedure will be followed.

It is the student's responsibility to provide written documentation of any change in his/her health status during the school year. Students who are absent from class or clinical because of back/muscle pain/injury or communicable disease must present written documentation from their physician that they are able to return to the classroom and clinical areas without risk to others and to safely care for patients.

Blood-Borne Pathogen Exposure Control

Even with good adherence to all exposure prevention practices and universal precautions, exposure incidents can occur. As a result, procedures have been established for post-exposure evaluation and follow-up should exposure to blood-borne pathogens occur.

OSHA regulations require employers to tell employees what to do if any exposure incident occurs. OSHA also mandates medical follow up and counseling for any employees who are exposed. Practical nursing students are at risk for exposure to blood borne pathogens, yet are not considered employees of any health facilities utilized for clinical experience. While OSHA standards require employers to provide free medical evaluation and treatment to employees who experience an exposure incident; unfortunately, at this time, county boards of education cannot assume similar responsibilities for the practical nursing students. The medical evaluation and follow up is the responsibility of the adult student.

Exposure incident is defined by OSHA as specific eye, mouth, other mucous membrane, non-intact skin, or parenteral contact with blood, or the inhalation or ingestion of potentially infectious materials that results from the performance of clinical tasks.

The following procedure will be followed after a potential exposure incident:

1. The student will immediately notify the instructor.
2. The educational facility incident report must be completed and become part of the student's permanent record. The educational facility shall retain the required records for a minimum duration of the educational program plus 30 years.
3. According to the policy of the respective medical facility, the source individual's blood is tested as soon as possible (after consent is obtained) in order to determine HBV and HIV infectivity. If consent is not obtained, the medical facility shall establish that the legally required consent cannot be obtained.
4. Information must remain confidential and every action is taken to protect the privacy of the individuals involved.
5. The following are recommended steps to be taken in the follow up of the exposed student:
 - Medical evaluation (at the student's expense) to include:
 - g. Appropriate laboratory testing
 - h. Post-exposure prophylaxis
 - i. Counseling
 - j. Follow-up as prescribed by attending health care professional
6. The following information will be provided to the evaluating health care professional:
 - a. Copy of educational facility incident report
 - b. Results the source individual's blood testing, if available
 - c. Immunization records relevant to treatment of the student

This policy is based upon information in the Exposure Control for Blood and Other Potentially Infectious Material: A Protocol for Health Occupations Education Programs in West Virginia published by the West Virginia Department of Education, 1992.

Pregnancy

The PCTC School of Practical Nursing permits a student to continue in the program while awaiting the birth of her child. This is in accordance with the Pregnancy Disability Amendment of Title VII Rights Act. The student must have written approval of her physician to continue in the program.

Students are advised that the nature and exposure to a variety of illnesses in the clinical experience could pose a potential threat to an unborn baby. Students who become pregnant just prior to or during the school year may, therefore, wish to withdraw from the program and return the following year in accordance with the readmission policy. Should a student who is pregnant choose to continue in the program, the student is required to:

1. Notify the coordinator immediately when pregnancy is suspected.
2. Sign a waiver releasing the school and cooperating agencies from liability should activities relating to the educational program be detrimental to her or her unborn child.
3. Provide a statement from her physician authorizing continuation in the program following each prenatal visit.
4. During pregnancy and if delivery occurs during the school year the absenteeism policy of the school shall apply.

Graduation Requirements

Students receiving a diploma indicating satisfactory completion of an approved course in practical nursing are eligible to take the NCLEX Licensing Examination: In order to graduate, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. Satisfactorily completed 1300 hours of curriculum.
2. Maintained at least an 80% average in all theory

Honor Graduate Policy

Any student who maintains an overall program average of 3.5 or higher may be recognized at graduation as an honor graduate.. Faculty reserves the right to refuse a student as an honor graduate based upon disciplinary action that has taken place during the year. PCTC has adopted the standards of the National Technical Honor Society (NTHS).

The following standards must be met by the student:

Members should be good, honest, responsible student-citizens who have made a personal commitment to excellence and who agrees to uphold the NHS Standards of Conduct found below.

- Honor Candidates must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.5 and will be recognized as the following: The student's clinical grade will not be averaged in the overall cumulative grade point average.

Honors:	3.5 – 3.9
High Honors:	4.0
- No Discipline actions

Withdrawal Policy

A student who wishes to withdraw from the program should notify the coordinator of the program and present a written request stating the reason for withdrawal. Failure to adhere to this procedure will result in the student not being considered for readmission as a future time. Any fees paid will be refunded according to the Refund Policy. Books and uniforms become the property of the student on the first day of class.

Grievance Process

When a student encounters difficulty in the program he/she should take the following steps:

1. Students should be given reasonable opportunities to express complaints and to resolve grievances. According to Board policy, grievances require that:
 1. The student must have the opportunity to meet informally with the teacher, sponsor, or other person involved in the problem; and
 2. The school must provide for an informal appeal to the principal, who shall have authority to resolve grievances after a conference with all parties involved.
4. All student complaints of unequal treatment must be handled pursuant to Title IX regulations. The school administrator will conduct an investigation of the alleged violation.
5. If the complaint cannot be resolved by the sponsor or teacher, the student may appeal first to the principal, then to the Director of Personnel, then to the Superintendent, and finally to the Board of Education. All such grievances should be submitted in writing.
6. For inquiries concerning Title IX, please contact the Director of Personnel, at 304-586-3494 x1109.
7. For inquiries concerning 504 / ADA, please contact the Director of Exceptional Education, at 304-586-0500 x1111.
8. The Council on Occupational Education (COE) recommends that complainants first attempt to resolve complaints through the institution's established policies and procedures. Once the institution's procedures have been exhausted the complainant may file a written and signed letter of complaint to COE describing the nature of the grievance and the preliminary steps taken to resolve the problem. Once the letter is received by COE, a Complaint Certification form is mailed to the individual filing the complaint. The complainant has 14 days to return the signed and completed certification form to COE. The Council staff will then send a copy of the original letter of complaint and a copy of the certification form to the institution. PCTC will have 21 days to submit a formal response to the Council. After the response has been received by COE, the Council will send a copy of the complaint letter, certification form, and institutional response to members of the Commission who will have 21 days to render a judgment on the complaint. The Commission may rule that (a) the institution has responded adequately to the complaint; (b) the institution has not responded adequately and must take appropriate action to resolve the issue; or (c) more information is needed from either the complainant or the institution in order for a judgment to be rendered. Complainants should allow for at least 42 days for the Commission's decision on a complaint once the Council has received a signed Complaint Certification form. The Commission attempts to resolve all complaints within 60 days.

PREGNANCY FORM

I have been counseled by a faculty member of the school of nursing regarding the pregnancy policy of the school.

I understand that I must have written approval from my physician in order to continue in the program. If anytime during my pregnancy my doctor advises me to discontinue the nursing program, I will notify my instructor immediately and present the coordinator with written explanation from the physician.

I assume all responsibilities for any risk involved in continuing the program.

I understand that if I deliver the baby during the school year, I may need to complete the program at a later date as the absence policy will apply. At that time, I would reapply to the program under the guidelines of the Re-Admission with Advance Standing Policy.

Honesty and Testing Policy Agreement

It is our belief that all adult students should set the example for the secondary students with whom you share this school. It is imperative that honesty be practiced in all academic and non-academic areas.

Any adult caught cheating, lying, or stealing may be terminated upon completion of an investigation of the incident. We must maintain a proper, honest work ethic in order to be able to recommend a student for employment upon completion of a vocational program.

I have read and understand the testing policy for the Putnam Career & Technical Center School of Practical Nursing. I agree to follow it, and understand the consequences if I choose to practice an unacceptable behavior. My questions about the policy have been answered.
